

Dalriada Jigsaw 24

set by Algie

Insert the solutions jigsaw-wise, wherever they will fit.

You can't submit your result on-line, mail it to crosswords@dalriada.org.uk if you like.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| A download dictionary containing habitual user (6)                                     | O she's not exactly a BFG (6)                                       |
| B indolent big head one lied about (4 4)   | P flawlessness achieved by poetic fern arrangement (10)             |
| C birthplace as far from the grave as anyone can get (6)                               | Q silence when short musical composition follows French pronoun (8) |
| D domain name separator on a short road to senility? (6)                               | R clairvoyant property in rituals provides welcome breaks (8)       |
| E digs in between French recesses without Italian capital (10)                         | S infect with AIDS transformation made holy (10)                    |
| F uplifted flyers in a meal (6)  | T sounds like Bangkok citizens get knotted (4)                      |
| G resting places as far from the Cs as anyone can get (6)                              | U a state of agitation agitates N with T for D (6)                  |
| H audible brew of herbal tea without without end (8)                                   | V six fishy breathers without fifty wakeful attendances (6)         |
| I it seems likely to me that I'm a brave orator (1 4 3)                                | W livin' ain't so easy just now eh, Gershwin ? (10)                 |
| J I wish Franglais related to Hebrew people (6)  | X aka Roentgen between Whiskey and Yankee (1-3)                     |
| K extreme letters in the sound of Scottish cattle make their own distinctive sound (6) | X aka Yuletide between Halloween and Hogmanay (4)                   |
| L young animals could be cleverest beheaded (8)  | Y barked, like a lap dog? (6)                                       |
| M be successful, repair, insert pious centre in deity (4 4)                            | Z a canal too far for Eden upended mythological supremo (4)         |
| N broke break apart and cared for the sick (6)   |  |
| N a lunatic confused could be familiar to the senior service (8)                       |  |